

The Spa at Pennyhill Park Hotel to launch Elemental Herbology exclusively in the U.K.

On September 12th, The Spa at Pennyhill Park Hotel in Surrey will be the first Spa hotel in the United Kingdom to offer Elemental Herbology exclusive spa treatments and skincare to hotel residents and day spa visitors. Firmly established in the USA, Japan and Australia, Elemental Herbology is fast becoming a recognised and authoritative independent brand amongst health and beauty experts and The Spa at Pennyhill Park is delighted to be the premier partner in Elemental Herbology's growth in the United Kingdom.

Running alongside the existing signature line of The Spa body products, Elemental Herbology is an exciting addition to the impressive 45,000 square foot Spa at Pennyhill Park. The menu will include 'Seasonal' treatments exclusive to the five star hotel guests, day spa guests and spa members, as well as providing a full skincare and gift range for Spa visitors to sample and purchase.

Signature Elemental Herbology treatments include the Elemental Massage, a balancing and restorative massage that combines aromatherapy infusions with skilful therapeutic techniques to optimum effect. The seasonal treatment menu also includes specialised facial treatments that will be available including the Elemental Harmoniser, a facial treatment designed to balance your skin by addressing its precise needs. The spa will encourage guests to book time which will be tailor-made to suit the individual needs on that day and reflecting the seasonal needs. The day rituals include a specific anti aging ritual, de-stress, pregnancy and the men's fire and water ritual. The 3 day journey embraces the energy of the beautiful English countryside, created to offer a magical retreat from the everyday stresses and strains of everyday life.

Pioneering the concept of seasonal skincare, Elemental Herbology has established itself as a leading and award winning brand with its naturally active, results driven skincare and spa line. Having worked in the spa and skincare industry for over 10 years, founder Kristy Goodger combined her extensive expertise in natural skincare with her practical knowledge of Chinese medicine and acupuncture to create prescriptive skincare solutions that work.

The adult-only destination spa at Pennyhill Park provides the ultimate natural and holistic experience, offering treatments for both men and women, spa days, spa breaks and Exclusive Membership. Facilities include 21 treatment rooms, a private VIP suite and eight indoor and outdoor ozone treated pools and hot tubs. The Thermal Heaven includes one of the the most advanced thermal sequencing experiences in the UK with herbal saunas, aromatic laconium, tepidarium, ice cave, schnapps steam room and foot massage thrones.
